"In Uncorking the Past, Patrick E. McGovern charts the enchantment of human beings with alcoholic beverages from their initial discoveries of fermented honey, fruits, and grains to the perfection of elaborate means for producing, storing, transporting, and consuming treasured spirits. McGovern's gaze is truly global, spanning all the continents, but it is also microscopic, penetrating to neural pathways, genes, and molecules.

...

I did this quest, then went back later to help my girlfriend do it. The places she found the fragments were all different than where I found them. A group is certainly helpful, but I am not sure it's needed -- there were so many people killing here both times I spent time it didn't seem like there was much problem keeping the area mostly clear.
