Worshiping God is one of the believer's highest callings. Music and songs have been a timeless way to glorify God throughout history. Scripture itself is full of musical and poetic praises dedicated to the Lord. Using a unique combination of songs and reflections, the NIV Worship Together Bible blends modern-day worship and culture with the beloved Word of God. This Bible helps you embrace God as your loving Father and shows you how to exalt him through song and reflection. The musical inspiration in this Bible will remind you of the importance of constantly striving to be Christlike. As Pastor Jack Hayford, the author of the song "Majesty," once put it: "Worship changes the worshiper into the image of the One worshiped." Features: • The complete text of the world's most popular modern-English Bible, the NIV • Lyrics to the top 100 worship songs • Song notes and reflections from the songwriters • Simple chord charts for the Top 20 worship songs • Essay that explores the purpose and history of worship music • Foreword by Matt Maher • Index to organize songs by scriptural reference

His Grace is Enough is a book written with the hope of helping Christians better understand the Grace, Love and Forgiveness that God provides to us. His Grace is Enough includes the personal testimony of how God's Grace has impacted his own life in a number of remarkable and extraordinary ways during the past fifteen years. The author believes that many Christians miss the blessing of these three very fundamental and important theological truths found in Scripture. Tom hopes that by writing His Grace is Enough, many more Christians will be able to take hold of and effectively apply those truths in their own lives, so they might have a much deeper appreciation of God's gift of Grace and a more meaningful relationship with Him and others. Thomas Bartel Scottsdale, Arizona 2007 Tom accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior in 1991. Since that time he has been involved in several areas of ministry including divorce recovery, divorce prevention, reconciliation, marriage preparation and evangelism. Tom was the founding Executive Director of the Arizona Alliance for Faith Based and Community Action in 2001. Tom has participated in a number of missions to South America, traveling to Argentina, Uruguay and Paraguay to establish new Evangelical Bible churches in those countries. Tom graduated from Fuller Theological Seminary in 2005 with a Master's in Theology, Biblical Studies, emphasis in Family and Pastoral Counseling. Tom has also developed a website ministry called savebyhisgrace.org for Evangelism Outreach. He presently lives in Scottsdale, Arizona and attends Highlands Community Church there.

Mary has a secret. A piece of her past is so painful and shameful that she has told only her parents. Now as a vibrant young woman from a Mennonite family, Mary's secret stands in the way of her finding happiness. John, a missionary passionate for the Lord's work, wants to make Mary his wife. How can Mary commit to him when he doesn't know her true self? "Francis? Is that you?" With those four words over the phone, the life Francis—a single-mother of two—knew comes to a screeching halt. On the other end of the line is Mike, a man that Francis hasn't seen or heard from in ten years. He is the father of her children, and he left her in the worst possible way. Now he wants to be in their life again. How can Francis ever move past what he did to them? As Mary, Francis, and their loved ones wrestle with unconscionable acts, their futures depend on the answer to one question: Can they find the grace to forgive? Although a sequel to Grace for Tomorrow, this book stands on its own as a story about the human condition and how Divine inspiration can change everything.

This set includes Lies Women Believe and the Lies Women Believe Companion Guide. In Lies Women Believe, bestselling author Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth exposes those areas of deception most commonly believed by Christian women—lies about God, sin, priorities, marriage and family, emotions, and more. She then sheds light on how we can be delivered from bondage and set free to walk in God's grace, forgiveness, and abundant life. "Many women live under a cloud of personal guilt and condemnation," says DeMoss. "Many are in bondage to their past. Others are gripped by fear of rejection and a longing for approval. Still others are emotional prisoners." Satan is the master deceiver and his lies are endless. And the lies Christian women believe are at the root of most of their struggles. In the Lies Women Believe Companion Guide, DeMoss divides the study into ten sessions for individuals or small groups. Each chapter includes the following features: In a Nutshell: Gives you an overview of the chapter to be studied from Lies Women Believe and reminds you of the lies discussed within that chapter. Exploring the Truth: Offers a daily personal study for you to complete during the course of the week between your small group meetings. Each day's study includes a few pages to read from Lies Women Believe and then questions to answer under the subtitles "Realize," "Reflect," and "Respond." Walking Together in the Truth: Provides questions to be discussed when your small group meets. Now there is a resource that will help you go deeper with the truths from DeMoss's best-selling book Lies Women Believe. These penetrating questions will make you and your friends think and wrestle with the Truth as you search the Bible for answers to tough issues. Truth is not just something to know but something to live out in the laboratory of life as you apply the Word to real-life situations. The Companion Guide for Lies Women Believe is ideal for small groups, Bible Studies, and Sunday school classes.
